CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

The Houses of Parliament are a most imposing pile of buildings viewed from the river. On their site once stood the ancient Royal Palace of Edward the Confessor, which, however, was considerably altered and rebuilt by William Rufus and Stephen and Henry VIII. Parts of these buildings were destroyed during the Great Fire of 1666, and the "New Palace of Westminster" was erected by Sir Charles Barry at a cost of £3,000,000 in 1840.
